Saturday, April 19 ~ 2:00 PM
Main Library Auditorium

Are you a beginning or professional photographer?
Are you interested in elevating your images to outstanding?

If so, this talk is for you.

Glenn Hohnstreiter's informative program focuses on what makes an image outstanding, what separates it from ordinary and how you can achieve exceptional images in your photography. Many concepts in image criteria will be discussed, including basic concepts such as composition and patterns in art, and concepts based on the Creative System. Examples of Hohnstreiter's images will be used throughout the talk to illustrate the concepts presented.

Glenn Hohnstreiter, an Albuquerque resident, specializes in fine art photography. He has developed a style that uniquely interprets vibrant images of nature. Hohnstreiter's works have been published in many professional journals, books and calendars. He is a member of the Professional Photographers of America, where he holds the degrees of Master of Photography and Photographic Craftsman. www.gfphotography.com
